WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATIONS BUREAU ANNOUNCES THAT APPLICATIONS FOR AUCTION 110 LICENSES ARE ACCEPTED FOR FILING

On January 4, 2022, bidding concluded in the Federal Communications Commission's (Commission's) auction of new flexible-use licenses in the 3.45-3.55 GHz (3.45 GHz) band, and the Office of Economics and Analytics (OEA) and the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau (WTB) announced the results of that auction on January 14, 2022.¹ Long-form applications (FCC Form 601) for licenses won in Auction 110 were due on January 31, 2022. The 23 long-form applications listed in Attachment A, which reflects all long-form applications for Auction 110, have been found, upon initial review, to be acceptable for filing. The Commission may return or dismiss the applications, however, if upon further examination, they are found to be defective or not in compliance with the Commission's rules.²

We remind Auction 110 long-form applicants that the 3.45 GHz Second Report and Order established that new 3.45 GHz Service licensees must reimburse the reasonable relocation costs of incumbent secondary, non-federal radiolocation users to transition out of the band.³ Details about the licensees' reimbursement of relocation costs will be forthcoming in Docket No. 19-348. Additionally, we remind Auction 110 long-form applicants of their obligation to coordinate with the federal incumbent(s) associated with a particular Cooperative Planning Area or Periodic Use Area prior to commencing operations in that area.⁴

Petitions to deny the applications listed in Attachment A must be filed no later than March 7, 2022, ten (10) days after the date of this Public Notice.⁵ Oppositions to a petition to deny must be filed no later than March 14, 2022, five (5) business days after the filing date for petitions to deny. Replies to oppositions must be filed no later than March 21, 2022, five (5) business days after the filing date for oppositions. All pleadings filed regarding any of these Auction 110 long-form applications should reference the file number of the application. Each application is a restricted proceeding under the Commission's rules.⁶ A petitioner shall serve a copy of its petition to deny on the applicant and on all other interested parties pursuant to 47 CFR § 1.47. Oppositions and replies shall be served on the
